

Near East Travel Agency

Description

Established in 1964, the Near East Tourist Agency (NET) is a leading tour operator specializing in guided journeys through the captivating lands of the Bible. With a deep focus on religious heritage, cultural roots, and historical pathways, NET has catered to scholars, archaeologists, pilgrims, and tourists seeking profound experiences. NET offers personalized attention and knowledgeable guides to ensure memorable trips. Headquartered in the Holy Land, with branches in Jordan, Italy, Greece, and Turkey, NET provides expertise across various Bible lands. Operating its own fleet of buses, NET ensures comfortable and reliable transportation throughout the journey. Additionally, NET takes pride in its hospitality services, owning and managing several renowned hotels. The Ambassador, Ambassador Boutique, and Ritz Hotel in Jerusalem, along with the Ambassador City in Bethlehem, provide exceptional accommodations for discerning travelers. Whether emphasizing cultural and historical aspects or deepening your faith through pilgrimage, NET collaborates with partner agencies to design and execute tailored itineraries. Their professional guides connect each location to biblical events, bringing the Scripture to life. The Holy Land holds a special place in NET's offerings. Walk in the footsteps of Jesus, explore the Dead Sea, the Sea of Galilee, and Jerusalem's sacred sites. Discover the rich history shaped by diverse civilizations throughout centuries. NET invites you on an unforgettable journey through the lands of the Bible, where history, spirituality, and culture converge to create transformative travel experiences. With their own fleet of buses and a portfolio of exceptional hotels, NET ensures a seamless and comfortable travel experience from start to finish.
